HERE IS A FOOTBALL ELEVEN THAT COULD WIN THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Walter Camp, the Noted Authority on the Game, Picks Gridiron Stars That, in His Opinion, Would Form an Invincible Collection.

THIS THE GREATEST FOOTBALL ELEVEN, SAYS WALTER CAMP.

Position	Player	Team	Years on All-American
End	Hinkey	Yale	1891-2-3-4
Tackle	Cowan	Princeton	1899
Guard	Glass	Yale	1902
Center	Lewis	Amherst and Harvard	1902-3
Guard	Heffelfinger	Yale	1899-1900
Tackle	Newell	Harvard	1899-1-2-3
End	Campbell	Harvard	1899-1900-1
Quarter-back	Daly	Harvard and West Point	1898-9-1900
Half-back	McClung	Yale	1898-1
Half-back	Kelly	Princeton	1897-7
Full-back	Butterworth	Yale	1897-4

In this year of football surprises and unsettled and uncertain honors on the gridiron Walter Camp, the greatest authority on the American college game, has picked an American team from the greatest players of the past fourteen years.

Mr. Camp's task was a difficult one. To pick the eleven star men from hundreds of the best football players the country has ever known looked almost impossible. In making his selection Mr. Camp did not go beyond three colleges—Yale, Princeton and Harvard—and only two men selected were named less than twice for the "All-American" team in their years at the game.

Many football enthusiasts will not agree with Camp's pick for the American team. Westerners particularly will resent the omission of O'Dea, of Wisconsin, for instance, and New Yorkers will feel that Weekes or Morley should have been on the list.

Daly, the Harvard and West Point star, is selected by Mr. Camp for the position of quarterback, and there every football crank will agree in the selection.

With Daly to run the team, Mr. Camp has this to say regarding the quarter and other backs:

"This young man, Daly, needs little description to the general football public. Weighing about 150 pounds, active as a cat, and cool in the most trying situations, Daly was, at his best, all that could be asked of any man in the position. A marvelous power in running in a broken-up field, a very good punter on emergency, and a deep kicker as well, he combined the attributes of the best quarters of his time, or any time. And this in spite of the fact that in his final year at Harvard and the year of his own captaincy, his showing was mediocre.

"In the back field McClung, of Yale, of the All-American teams of 1899 and 1901, was the best, all things considered, of any of the men who stood in the position.

"Kelly, of Princeton, and the All-American half-back of 1896 and 1897 would make a fitting mate to McClung, while the full-back position would go to Butterworth, of Yale, and the All-American man on the teams of 1893 and 1894.

"Brooke, of the University of Pennsylvania, would run Butterworth very close on the kicking. Bull, of Yale, it will be remembered, was like Corbin before the days of All-American selections. Hirschberger, of Chicago, and Mitchell, of this year's Yale team, were both wonderful kickers. But no one of these men could equal Butterworth in the strength of his running game, and, therefore, Butterworth gets the place."

BUTTERWORTH.

GOOD RUNNERS ENTERED.

Bonham, Joyce, Carr, Cohn and other good distance runners will take part in the mile-and-a-half handicap at the open games of the Hospital Corps of the Eighth Regiment, which will be held on Nov. 26. This will be the feature race of the evening. Arrangements have been made so that outside athletes use the armory for training purposes.

TOMMY RYAN MATCHED TO FIGHT JACK ROOT

After considerable wrangling over the weight question a match has finally been arranged between Tommy Ryan, the middle-weight champion of the world, and Jack Root, of Chicago. The managers of both men met by appointment in Chicago on Saturday night and after a crossfire of argument as to weight, time of weighing in, place of contest and a lot of other matters, they finally drew up articles of agreement, which they signed. According to the articles the men will engage in a ten-round bout.

Jack Curry, representing the Blue Island Athletic Club, who was present, offered the pair a guarantee of $2,000, with the privilege of 50 per cent. of the gross receipts.

NEWS OF THE FIGHTERS

The Eureka A. C., of Baltimore, has completed arrangements for a winter fight with the clever little feather-weight who recently secured a decision over "Joe" Tipman, and "Ed" Leamy, the shifty Chicago lad, will be the fifteen rounds on next Friday night at Germania Maennerchor Hall. Articles for the men to weigh 125 pounds at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the match have been signed, and both boys have begun training.

Harry Gilmore, Jr., matchmaker for the Dubuque Athletic Club, is trying to match Martin Duffy and Dick Fitzpatrick to battle fifteen or twenty rounds on Nov. 14. The club started several ten-round bouts last Monday night, with Henry Parin and Johnny Thompson in the windup, which resulted in a draw.

There is a possible chance of "Buddy" Ryan and Billy "Honey" Melody coming together in a ten-round tilt under the auspices of the Blue Island Athletic Club, of Chicago, within two weeks. The pair met twice at Battery 5, in Chicago, last winter. Ryan won the first bout by a small margin after six rounds and being awarded the second on a foul.

Gus Breenah has arrived in Seattle on his way to San Francisco. He is ready to meet any one from 115 to 125 pounds. Breenah claims the 115-pound championship of the East. According to his record he has had six fights and lost only one, that to Gardner. He is one of five brothers, all pugilists. He says that not one of the five has ever been knocked out.

At a meeting of directors of the Olympic Club, of Grand Rapids, it was decided to match Mike Ward, of Sarina, against Jimmy Gardner or Matty Matthews, for the club show during the mid-winter furniture season. Ward lost to Gardner the only time he met him and ever since has been anxious to meet him again.

Dave Barry, the California middle-weight, has been offered an offer to fight Tommy Burns at Seattle on Nov. 17 and has accepted. Burns showed he had class in his fight with Woods, and Barry will have no snap beating him.

Dan Croston is now at Coolgarra, Western Australia, where he is listed to box Tom Luggan.

Johnny Mooney writes from Chicago that Billy Melody, welterweight champion, will meet Buddy Ryan at the Blue Island Athletic Club, Chicago, Nov. 7 or 9. Martin Duffy at the Chicago A. A., Nov. 19. Joe Gans probably at West End A. C., St. Louis, Nov. 21; Charley Hitt at Albany the first week in December, and Cy Flynn at Bradford, Pa., the second week of next month.

Kid McCoy writes from Los Angeles that he has purchased a home and will in the future make that town his permanent residence. He could not have picked a lovelier spot unless it were Denver. The kid intends from now on to settle down and lay away some of his big earnings. He has still many a good fight left in him, and with his great personal popularity has many years of usefulness before him.

In the second boxing show of the season at the Chicago A. A. last Saturday night Billy Flincaus, of Chicago, earned a decision over Willie Mack, of Brooklyn, at the end of six fast rounds. The bout was the wind-up of the show and only through the good will of Flincaus were the club members, enabled to see the boys go the limit.

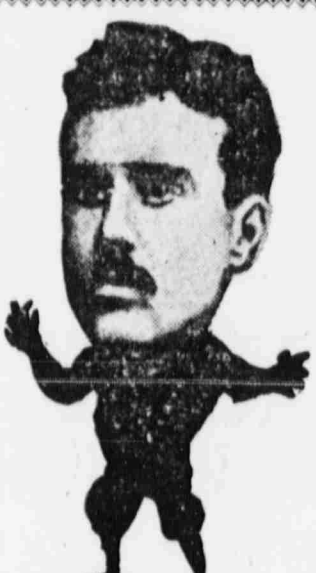

Martin Duffy and Dick Fitzpatrick will meet at Indianapolis on Nov. 18.

KELLY.

HACKENSCHMIDT VS. BOTHNER

Young Hackenschmidt, the "Bavarian Tiger," who is to meet George Bothner, the light-weight champion, on Friday night at Prospect Hall, on Prospect Avenue, South Brooklyn, is almost down to the required weight and feels better and stronger than he ever felt in his life.

GANS AND BRITT MAY SOON FIGHT AGAIN

Al Herford Offers the Boys a $15,000 Purse to Battle Before His Club in Baltimore.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—As a result of the unsatisfactory ending of the Britt-Gans fight, the two men may meet again in a short time. If they do it possibly may be in the East. Al Herford, speaking for Gans, said today: "If Britt will fight Gans at Baltimore my club will hang up a purse of $15,000, and if Britt will meet Gans at 131 pounds ring side I will give him a side bet of $2,500, and he can split the purse 50 and 50 if he chooses. I have always contended that Gans can do weight easier East than he can here, and I am still of this belief. I will take Graney for referee, or Britt can have somebody else."

In response to this, Britt says he will meet Gans at any weight, at any place and at any time. In fact, he is fully convinced he is the negro's master and is only too anxious to get him in the ring again.

In discussing Tuesday's fight, Britt said: "I was bent upon handing Gans a thrashing he didn't suspect was in the deck. I think if the fight had gone on for another round or two it would have been necessary for the con's seconds to send for an ambulance and have their man taken to a hospital.

"I was at my very best weight, and was twice the man I was when I worked and starved myself to 125 pounds in order to whip 'Young Corbett' and win the feather-weight title.

"I want to take a whack at this 'Young Corbett' now, and I guess there will be a match made between the Jervette and myself for 133 pounds, 5 o'clock. I don't think I will have to be at my very best to give 'Corbett' another beating.

"The decision in the Gans fight was fair. I could not help it. Gans kept slipping to the floor without being struck. He also kept hanging on to me, and I tried to fight him off. I went in to win, and in my opinion I would have knocked Gans out had the fight continued."

Gans denies that he schemed to have Britt foul him. He declares the hard spell of work stiffened him up, and that after the third round his knees became slow and he lost all his speed.

TIGERS PRACTISE FOR THE ARMY GAME

(Special to The Evening World.) PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 2.—The Tigers practised behind closed gates again yesterday, and, judging from the reports that came from the field, the coaches had reason to be entirely satisfied with the day's work. The men played with a snap and vim that they had not shown in some time.

In fifty minutes of play the "varsity" scored one touchdown on the scrum after a series of line plunges. Stannard showed a great deal of improvement on the defense and is coming fast. There will be open practice for the remainder of the week.

A large crowd is expected to accompany the team to West Point on Saturday. Six hundred tickets have been distributed among the undergraduates.

PALMER HAS MADE $75,000.

"Pedlar" Palmer on his recent return to London from South Africa announced that he had eight championships—from 100 to 120 pounds of the world and from 130 to 150 pounds of South Africa. Palmer began boxing in 1880, and is now twenty-eight years of age. He says his best fight was with "Billy" Flincaus, when he won in fourteen rounds. His best match financially was with Terry McGovern, he says, and while he was defeated, he got $5,000. "And the experience I got in fighting too close," asserts Palmer, "will never be forgotten." Palmer claims to have made $75,000 in the ring.

EDGREN'S COLUMN

LITTLE FABLES OF SPORT.

Once Upon a Time It Happened that various and several of the American Colleges assembled themselves and Spoke Together. "It being Apparent to the Naked Eye," they said, "That WE are IT, to the Total Exclusion of all Other Institutions of Football, we will now proceed to call ourselves the 'Big Four.'"

"We will also play the Game among ourselves, and the Superior Team developed by US as the Champions of America."

"As it may be necessary for US to have some Exercise in the Game, we will Condescend to play a few Practice Games with Inferior Teams from the Lesser Colleges."

Having So Decided, the Big Four proceeded to carry out its Programme. Princeton was Swatted by Annapolis. Yale was Whipped by West Point. Harvard was Kicked to Death by Pennsylvania.

Penn was Scored Against by Swarthmore.

The Lesser Colleges, then comparing notes, decided that the Big Four was really the "Minor League."

Opponent failed to show Respect for his Great Superiority, and immediately taking the Aggressive, rudely Knocked him Down Four Times in Succession.

The Champion, finding that he was being Whipped, then slipped to his knees to Avoid Punishment, and the Youthful Opponent, carried away with his Success, struck him while he was down, losing the Decision.

Upon returning to his Dressing-room the Champion soliloquized as follows: "Truly I am in Great Luck. It is evident that I am a Greater Light-weight Champion when I fight as a Welter-weight." He then Announced Publicly that he never again would Make the Weight when called upon to defend the Light-weight Title.

Moral—Jim Jeffries is a Better Middle-weight than Tommy Ryan.

A Trusting Public, studiously perusing the Form Charts, hid its way to a Race Track in the wilds of Long Island. According to Previous Performances, there was only one Horse in the Race, and the name of it was New York.

The Trusting Public tossed its Roll to the Bookmakers to play on New York at Short Odds, and then withdrew to the lawn to Enjoy the Race, not knowing that the "Wise" Money was being piled up on an Inconspicuous Equine known as Jay Bay, who did not figure in the Form Charts at all.

The Favorite at the last moment became Absent Minded, and Forgot to Start, and the Inconspicuous Equine came Home on the Bit.

Moral—It is better to be "Wise" than to Know All about the Ponies.

NEW YACHTING RULES.

DETROIT, Nov. 2.—At a meeting held here the Rules Committee of the Interlake Yachting Association agreed upon several recommendations to be made at the association's annual meeting in December. The recommendations will include a complete new set of rules for 20-foot, 15-foot and 10-foot yachts.

The old unrestricted 20-foot boats are assigned to the 20-foot class, and the Lake Ontario restrictions for 20-foot boats are copied. The new rules will demand cabins in this class. Salt-water boats of the 15-foot and 10-foot classes may enter providing their rig is not increased.

COLUMBIA GETS READY FOR CORNELL

Columbia's football players resume practice to-day for the game with Cornell, after a rest since the Yale contest. All the Light Blue and White's eleven are in good shape and as a whole as could be expected. The men have hopes of making a good end to a season at present, the reverse of successful, and for that reason have great hopes of the game with the Ithacans.

ANSWERS TO SPORT QUERIES

Please inform me through your paper where the fight between J. L. Sullivan and J. Kilrain was fought. Richburg, Miss.

Kindly inform me through The Evening World what is a jockey's salary a year. H. A.

Different sum. From $5,000 to $15,000.

A bet 154 pounds is the right weight for middle-weight championship. B says 154 pounds.

B must 154 is the limit. Kindly state in the Answers to Queries the dues of the Pastime A. C. and how they are paid, monthly or weekly.

Twenty-five cents a week. Paid each week.

A bet B. that the Maynard who fought Corbett and McGovern six rounds at Philadelphia lives in that city. B says he lives in New York, and that his right name is Gus Schneider. Who is right? T.

A bet B. that James Rowe is acknowledged to be a better trainer than Sam Hildreth. B says Hildreth is a better trainer than Rowe.

Both men are good trainers. Would you kindly let me know through your question and answer column whether Joe Walcott won or lost to Kid Carter, and oblige.

Walcott received a decision over Carter in a fifteen-round bout in Boston last year. Previous to this he had won a decision over Walcott on a foul in nineteen rounds at Hartford.

Kindly inform me through The Evening World the address of a good boxing instructor? S. S. GEORGE, street, city.

Kindly publish in your valuable paper if there is a race horse by the name of Mary Dinham. If so, where does it run, and what is its record, and oblige.

Never heard of her. There is a Rosie Dinham, a two-year-old, she has run on local tracks this season. In a three-handed game of pinochle A has score of 50 points and leads four aces, taking in 50 more points, making 100 points and claims out to be leads another card, which B takes. The lead finally goes to C, who makes enough to go out and claims out. C claims that A loses game for playing another card while claiming out. Who wins? PINOCHLE.

A is out if he has 1,000 points or ever when he claims out. His claim could include only the count in his hand at that moment. The fact that he led another card just at the moment he didn't matter one way or the other. He had his 50 in at that time.

Kindly decide the following question: In a game of poker, A opens the pot; B and C play along; A chips; they both see him; it calls three fives, which A knows are his. He plays and B takes the trick. When A remembers he is out B has 70 points to go. It is the last pick not call out until you are on the lead again. A says he can, as he is out and B is not. Which is right? E. J. C.

A wins.

What is the cost to see a game of rugby at American League Park? J. B.

Twenty-five and 50 cents.

PIRATES' INFELD TO BE SPLIT UP

PITTSBURG, Nov. 1.—The famous stone wall infeld of the Pittsburgh Baseball Club, which was instrumental in winning three pennants, but which fell a few games short last season, is to be broken. Leach, Wagner, Ritchey and Bransfield have played their last game together.

"Kitty" Bransfield is to go. Wagner is to be placed at first, and McBride will be placed at short. McCormick, too, is to go from right field.

The passing of Bransfield will bring forth a story of trouble in the team near the close of the season. Bransfield and Wagner came together hard on the eve of the last Eastern trip of the club, and rumors leading from the clubhouse say that Wagner was whipped by the athletic Bransfield.

MIDDIES WORK HARD FOR ARMY GAME

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 2.—The Annapolis team will not have any match game until it meets the eleven of Pennsylvania State College on Saturday next.

While the players are much disgruntled at being outplayed by Swarthmore after having defeated Princeton, yet it is recognized that the loss of the game may improve the final chances of winning from West Point by pointing out weak spots, especially overconfidence.

The hardest kind of practice work will be done all this week and the game with State, which is supposed to be about the same strength as Swarthmore, will be a good test of the playing ability.

The new backfield, with Pleson and McKinney, both substitute tackles and heavy men, at full and left half, is having much attention paid to it by the coaches and may be used against State.

RANDALL RETURNS TO HARVARD SQUAD

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 2.—As the result of the persuasions of half a dozen coaches, Randall was again in the scrimmage on Soldiers' Field yesterday.

At first he declared he would not go back to work, but it was soon shown him that, as captain of the baseball team next spring, he himself would be in a sense a disciplinary officer and would expect of others what he was refusing to give himself, namely, a ready obedience to the commands and will of his superiors.

The practice was very ragged and the tackling worse. Schooness, the big short-punter, did some service on the scrum and Talbot, the big freshman guard, also showed up brilliantly. Kernan was not out, but his absence was compensated for by the appearance of Noyes, who has been laid up for nearly two weeks with same back.

YALE STARS TAKE A BRIEF LAY-OFF

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 2.—Yale's "subs" had a field day yesterday. The "varsity" men were expected to get out in the afternoon for a practice, but the veterans were not in sight. Roraback, Bloomer and McCoy were not on the field. Capt. Hogan did not get in the scrimmage. Rockwell spent his time in drop-kicking while Sam Morse and Veeder were likewise given an afternoon off.

The practice to-day was not without interest. Little Hutchinson was in Rockwell's place behind the "varsity," and distinguished himself by a long cross-field and run that netted fifteen yards. He was also responsible for the "varsity's" place behind the "varsity," compelling the college to score a safety on a quarter-back kick.

New England's next important bout, one that will attract attention all over the country, is the meeting between Jimmy Briggs, of Chelsea, and Martin "Cassie" of Fall River, which will be decided at New Bedford, Nov. 8. The distance is fifteen rounds, and the boys will box for a decision. Both boys have national reputations, and the contest will be worth going a good way to see.

ALL AROUND GAELIC SPORTS.

Probably the most important series of Irish games of the season will take place at Celtic Park next Sunday, when the annual games of the Galway A. A. are held. There will be association football between the Camerons, of New York, and the White Stars, of Liverpool, England; push ball, Eccentric Firemen vs. Eccentric Engineers; hurling, with the champion Mahers lined up against the Emeralds of New Rochelle, and Gaelic football, Waterford vs. Galway, and the O'Connell's vs. the Young Irelands.

John T. Dougherty, the pugilist manager, who formerly looked after the managerial affairs of Matty Matthews and Kid McPartland, has now assumed the management of Joe Bernstein, the Ghetto champion, who is now going through a course of training with a view of meeting the best in the feather-weight division. His first opponent will be Benny Yanger, the Tipon Slicer.
